Talking with Nature – Moving into Oneness: an experiential 5-Day Intensive

At: Park Place Centre, Wickham, Hampshire, PO17 5HA

On: 13th to 17th June 2019

For six decades, Michael Roads has been exploring beyond linear space and time, with Nature as his guide, to lead him to awakening, oneness and more. Let him inspire you with the insights he has gained, and guide you to experience the same.

This Intensive uniquely integrates the metaphysics of nature with the unfoldment of the spiritual self; everything Michael teaches he has experienced himself in this lifetime and dimension, as well as in others.

What will you gain?

- Learn to listen rather than hear, and look rather than see
- Consciously connect with nature on a physical and metaphysical level
  - A changed perception of life, fear and death
  - The potential for internal shifts in consciousness
    - Tools to continue the connection

About Michael<sup>1</sup> A real pioneer of the New Age, Michael Roads discovered in the 1970s that he could go beyond linear space and time and communicate with Nature. Having emigrated from the UK to Australia, he worked as an organic farmer and consultant, and co-founded the 'down under' equivalent of Findhorn. Bill Mollison once said of him "Michael was alright until he went all spiritual"! This eventually led to his awakening and he now writes best-selling books and runs sold-out experiential workshops in Europe, USA, Australia and Japan. Now into his 80s, Michael and his beloved wife Carolyn live up a mountain in Northern Queensland, and when they are not touring they are being with their family and their 1 ha garden. Michael's body can often be found sitting in its armchair....

Michael says: "It is interesting how we, as a race of spiritual Beings, live such physical lives. Our mortal physicality is with us in our daily life to such an extent that we almost completely overlook the greater reality that we are, in fact, immortal Beings. Everything in our spiritual and religious writings throughout the ages points to this . . . yet physicality remains our overwhelming focus. It is a Truth that where you focus your energy flows, and connects, and creates. Over the generations we have mostly lost our deeper, spiritual connection with Nature; a connection vital to our wellbeing. It is one thing to intellectually know about the web of life, but it is something else altogether if you actually experience it.

The non-intellectual but inherent conscious intelligence of Nature knows and expresses itself as the consciousness of One. All Nature lives consciously in the moment, while humanity lives subconsciously out of the moment. Nature knows itself only as life. Death is not within an animal's consciousness, nor was it inbuilt into us.

Ultimately, we are not prisoners in a physical body: we are metaphysical Beings. Nothing is more natural to us than actually travelling other realms of reality. Unrealised, we do it in our astral dreams every night, but we can also do this when awake and conscious. Nature is our home. Not only the physical Nature that we see and enjoy around us, but the hidden secret world of Nature; the mystical world. Nature is a design to supply us with food, yet beyond this, on a deeper level, Nature is a blueprint that, by connecting with it, will nurture us in our soul development. This in turn enables us to live far more enriching and fulfilling lives.

This experiential event is based on my book containing deep insights I have gleaned from my fifty years of roaming and growing in the world of Nature that so very few people are aware of. It is as close as our own breath, yet is held away by lifetimes of rigid, inflexible beliefs. If you are open, this week will unfold an exciting and very new chapter in your life. Increasingly human hearts are calling out to reconnect with Nature, and the time for that connection is now."

Please join us!

The event will comprise a series of talks and inner exercises, with some outdoor work.
